E. Other: Newly submitted claims 92-97 directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: The original claims filed on October 31, 2007 and the newly submitted claims 92-37 are directed to related processes. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, the inventions as claimed the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect; (2) the inventions do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; and (3) the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants, newly submitted claims are directed scheduling one or more processing events and the original claims are directed to robot task list. Furthermore, the inventions as claimed do not encompass overlapping subject matter and there is nothing of record to show them to be obvious variants.
